Detectives of the District Attorney's office yesterday raided the office of Crossman, Sherman Co., brokers, of 7 Pine Street, and seized the firm's books, Assistant District Attorney Kilroe said, Complaints had come, Mr. Kilroe said, from James W. Ward, of Olean, N. Y., who alleges the loss of $1,600, and E. F. Putnam, of Lindstrom, Minn., who charges the loss of $1,600, and E. F. Putnam, of Lindstrom, Minn., who charges the loss of $6,500.

The firm, Mr. Kilroe said, was promoting the Manganese Mines of America Corporation, a Delaware corporation, with a capital stock of $1,000,000.

Judge Wadhams, in General Sessions yesterday, sentenced John I. Cramor, thirty-four, to the penitentury to a term of from six months to three years. Cramor had pleaded guilty to grand larceny. The indictment against him charged that in April of last year he received $200 from Mrs. Add Newburger, of 66 East Eightythand Scheet to buy certain oil stock for her and that he failed to give her the stock. Judge Wadhams said the courts would uphold the district attorney in his effets to clean up the financial district.

WILLIS GRANT MURRAY

While George Gould's attorneys had no statement to make on whether they would make an effort to obtain a stay of Justice Whitaker's removing order, pending the outcome of the appeal, they pointed out that before Frank Gould can function as trustee, he must qualify for the position before the court.

Singuld he do this before the Gould row, which was based on allegations that George had caused the estate, a loss of $25,000,000, is definitely settled, the latter's attorneys declared they would oppose any effort he might make at qualification as his brother's sick. He should prevent them from becoming sick. His voice was heard whenever he felt the city or country.

Justice Whitaker's order declared:

MR

JAMES BURKE

The funeral of James Burke, who was widely known as an Irish patriot, will be held this morning from St. Michael's Church in West Thirty-fourth Street. He died suddenly Thursday of cerebral hemorrhage at his home, 446 West Thirty-fourth Street, aged seventy-nine years. He was born in County Roscommon, and came to this country whon a young man after having spent a short time in England. While in England he joined the Fenian Brother-hood and continued active in its circles after coming to the United States. Among the other Irish organizations with which he was identified are the Hamilton Rowan Club and the Clan Na Gael. He took an active part in the preparations for the rescue of the Fenians in Australia. It was mainly through his efforts that the "patriots" plot" in Calvary Cemetery was established. He is urvived by his widow, Mrs. Rosa Burke, two grandchildren and two grand-nieces.
